Randy Chafetz Promoted to Executive Officer of BTMU

First Non-Japanese Executive Officer in BTMU History

NEW YORK, June 27 -- Randall Chafetz, current Head of Corporate and Investment Banking for the Americas, will assume a new global role as an Executive Officer of The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ (BTMU) in Tokyo beginning June 26. He will be the first non-Japanese Executive Officer in BTMU history.

Randy's new role will include responsibility for the bank's corporate and investment banking business outside of Japan as well as strategic leadership of the overseas non-Japanese corporate banking business. This appointment is part of BTMU's larger strategic plan to increase its market share on a global level over the course of the next few years.

In his various new capacities Randy will report to Takashi Morimura, Deputy President of BTMU and Chief Executive of the Global Business Unit, and Takahiro Yanai, Managing Executive Officer.

"Randy has helped lead BTMU in the Americas to unprecedented levels of success, expanding the business significantly," says Takashi Morimura. "The appointment of Randy as the first non-Japanese Executive within the bank is another example of BTMU's true commitment to be a global leader in the financial services industry."

Randy joined BTMU in 1998 and has held various roles within the bank and the securities firm. He took on his current role in 2008 and has led the corporate and investment banking business in the Americas to record revenues in each of the past 5 years.

Randy has a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of British Columbia and an MBA from the Johnson School at Cornell University, where he sits on the Advisory Council.
